EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

“

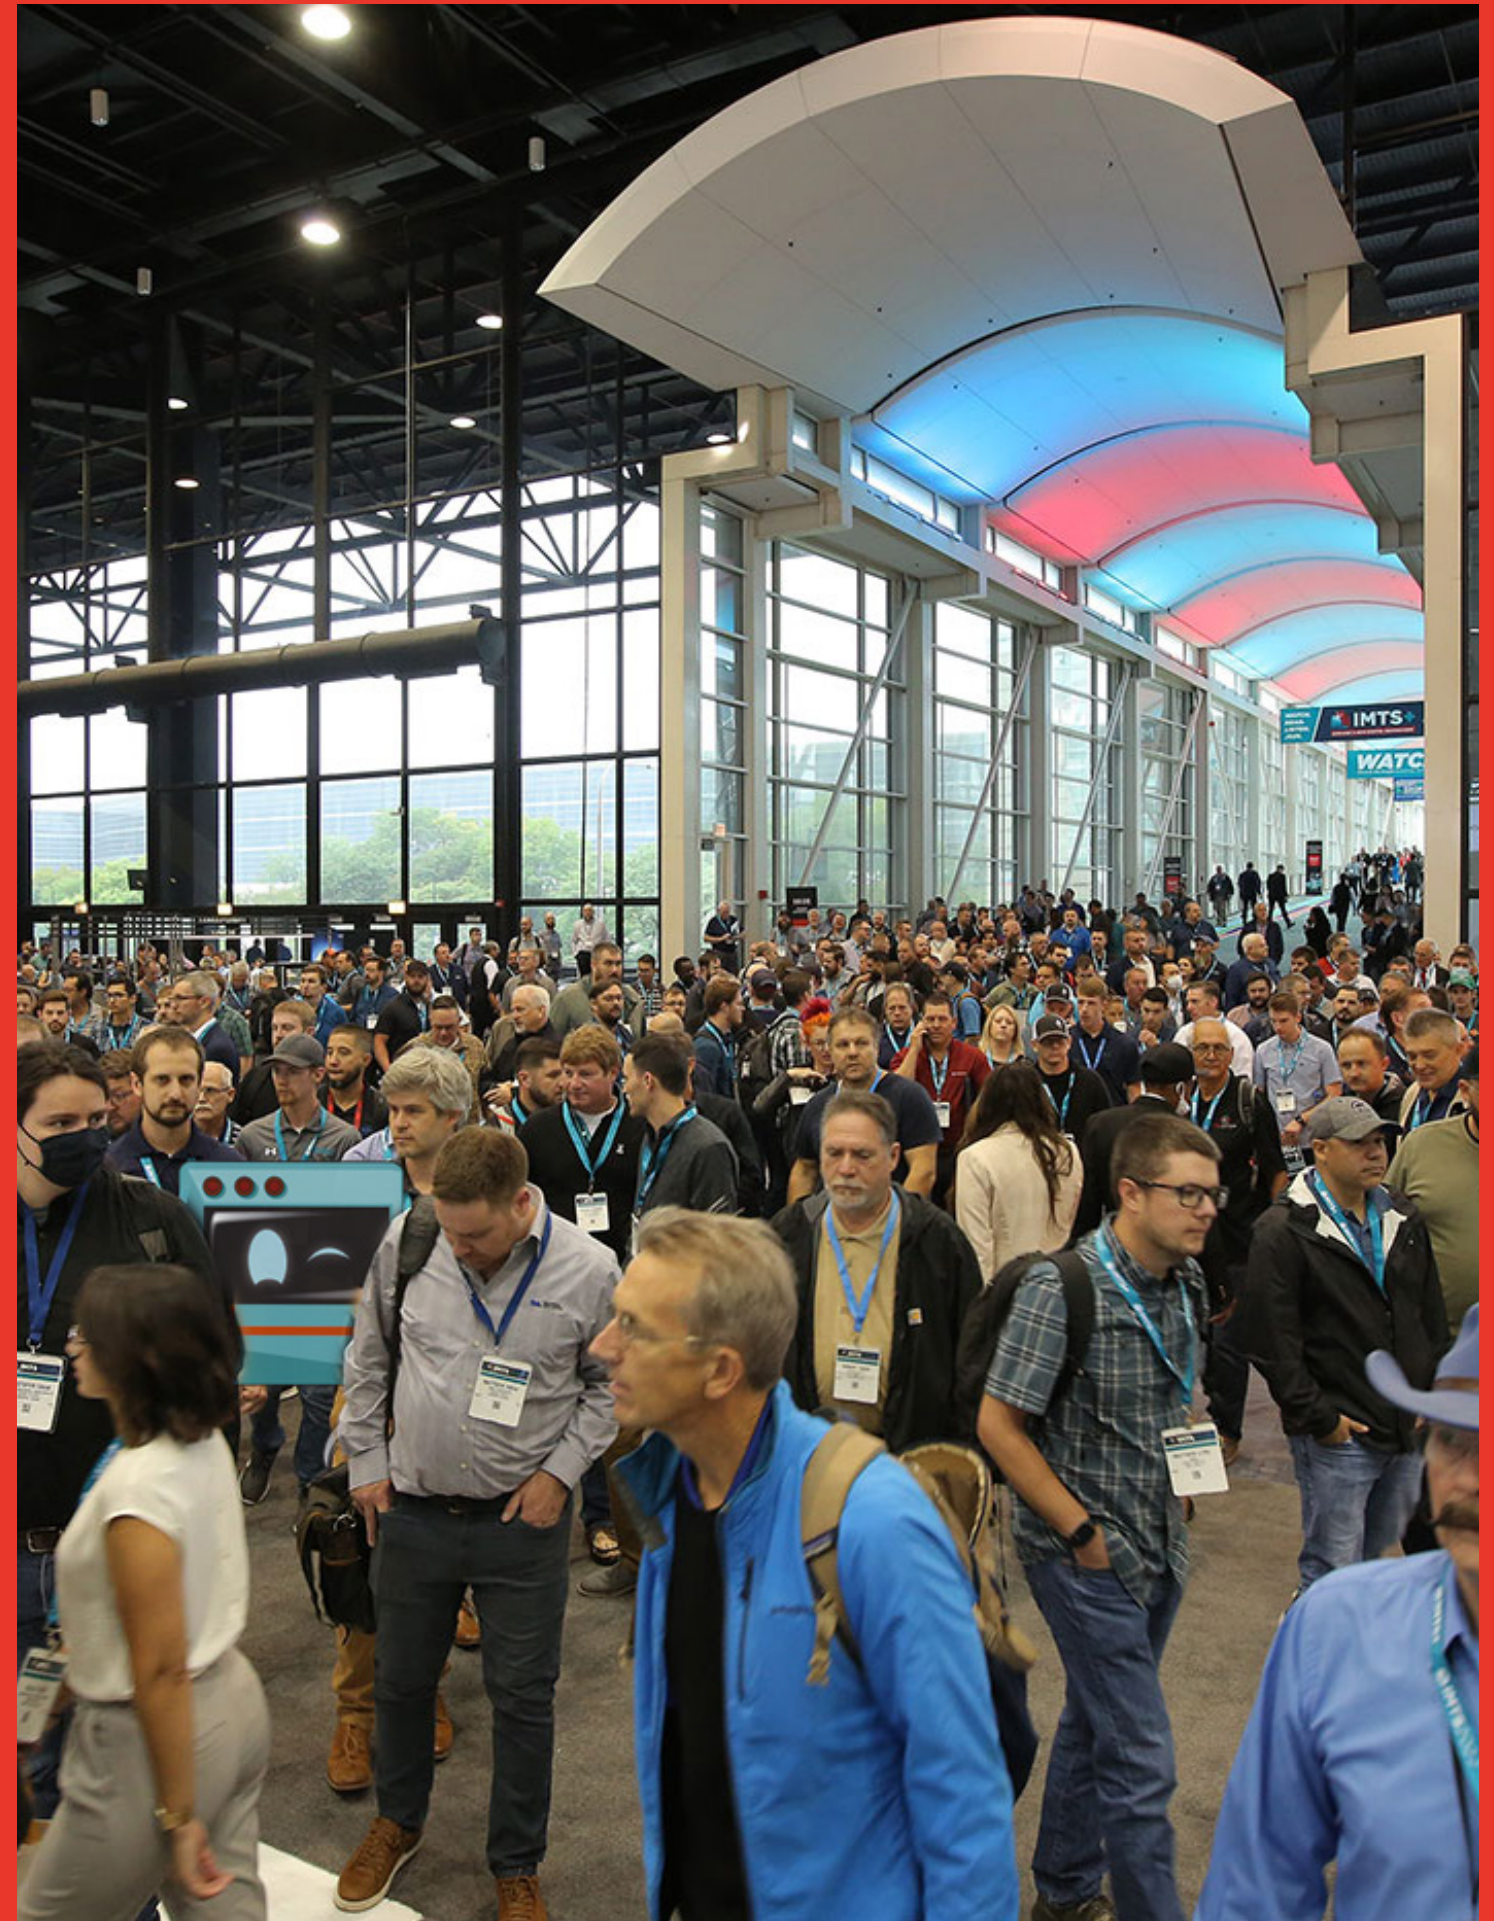

With manufacturing now at the center of the public’s attention, all eyes are on IMTS — the preeminent resource for the manufacturing community. IMTS 2024 features 10 solution sectors, including the futuristic Automation Sector, accelerated by SPS – Smart Production Solutions, and the Additive Manufacturing Sector, accelerated by Formnext. At a time of intense technology growth, visitors to IMTS 2024 will explore an expansive offering of automated, robotic, connected, and digital manufacturing solutions integrated throughout the show. IMTS is the epicenter of discovery, the heart of innovation, and the source of industry connections that move manufacturing forward.

Peter Eelman, Chief Experience Officer,
AMT – The Association For Manufacturing Technology

WHY EXHIBIT AT IMTS?

IMTS — The International Manufacturing Technology Show provides an unparalleled marketing opportunity to get in front of industry decision-makers. People from across the entire manufacturing ecosystem come to decide how to grow their business — and what they'll buy to make those plans happen.
